She went to the creek to fish and was discovered by Sally Austin late in the evening, leaning back in the forks of a tree with head and body bent together. She was stricken with heart failure.

A burglar tried to enter the residences of Mrs. Lucien Barker Friday night. He had cut a screen, and, in moving about, rattled the porch swing and awakened the family. The intruder ran. Later, the same man presumably, returned to the Sylvester house, next door to Baker's, and cut the screen there. Ollie Sylvester, hearing the noise went to the door and took a shot at the fleeing figure.

Robt. Tinsley shot and may have fatally injured D. Jackson at Carrollton Thursday night. Both parties are negroes. Tinsley claims that Jackson insulted his wife Thursday afternoon and followed her home. He came again in the evening and Tinsley ordered him to leave. Tinsley tried to get a warrant for Jackson's arrest then, but the justice of the peace asked him to wait until morning. When he returned home, Jackson again came to his house and as Tinsley started a second time for a warrant, Jackson followed him, he claims, with a knife. Tinsley then whirled and shot him twice. Jackson's intestines were perforated in three places. Jackson bears a bad reputation, having almost killed a man a year or so ago.

George Smith, manager of the Hudson ranch, east of town, finished threshing Friday afternoon, and from a field of oats containing 15 acres, he got 1,134 bushels, or an average of 75 3-5 bushels per acre by machine measure and as the grain is heavy and well filled it is probable that by weight the average would be greater, but it is good enough as it stands and we'd like to hear of a crop that will beat it. Don't all answer at once.—Norborne Democrat.
